HEROIC PATHS

Your path provides structure for how you choose your talents. It begins with a key talent that, once chosen, unlocks access to the talents within that path's three specialties. You can choose multiple paths and specialities as you level up, you are not restricted to only one path and one speciality. You can choose one talent each time you level up. You start with one free talent.

AGENT

A talented operative who solves problems with a keen mind or a deft hand. Agent specialties include the Investigator, Spy, and Thief.

Opportunist (key talent): Once per round, when you roll a Plot die, you can reroll the result. You must use the new result.

SPY

1 Sure Outcome: You can add a +1 to your Plot die.

a Plausible Excuse: If you fail a Stealth check, you can make a Deception check as a reaction.

2 Collected: You gain 1 new skill proficiency and 1 saving throw proficiency.

b Cover Story: You create a false identity for yourself. You have Advantage on Deception checks and creatures have Disadvantage on Insight checks regarding your false identity. You can change your false identity every week.

3 Mighty: You add 1 + Strength modifier to your damage rolls.

c High Society Contacts: You gain proficiency in Charisma saving throws and expertise in a Charisma skill. You gain Advantage on Charisma skill checks related to High Society.

4 Subtle Take-Down: Action. While hidden, you can make an unarmed attack against a creature of medium size or lower. On a hit, the creature is Grappled, has Disadvantage on escaping and you remain hidden.

d Mercurial Facade: Once per short rest. You can change to your false identity as a bonus action. All creatures that though your false identity was real and see you changing identities become Surprised for one turn on a failed DC 10 Wisdom check.

THIEF

1 Risky Behavior: You can use the Plot die twice per round.

a Cheap shot: You can add 1d4 extra damage to creatures that are Stunned, Surprised, Paralyzed, Grappled or haven't done anything in combat yet.

2 Double Down: You can reroll your Plot die twice.

b Surefooted: +5 ft speed, reduced falling and difficult terrain damage by 2 * lvl.

3 Underworld Contacts: You gain proficiency in Charisma saving throws and expertise in a Charisma skill. You gain Advantage on Charisma skill checks related to the Underworld.

c Shadow Step: You can Disengage and Hide as the same action.

RADIANT PATH

Once you have chosen at least one talent from a Heroic Path, for your next level up you can choose a talent from a Radiant Path instead. The key talent is the same for all the Radiant Paths.

KNIGHT RADIANT

“Swear an oath and bond with a magical spirit to wield extraordinary powers”

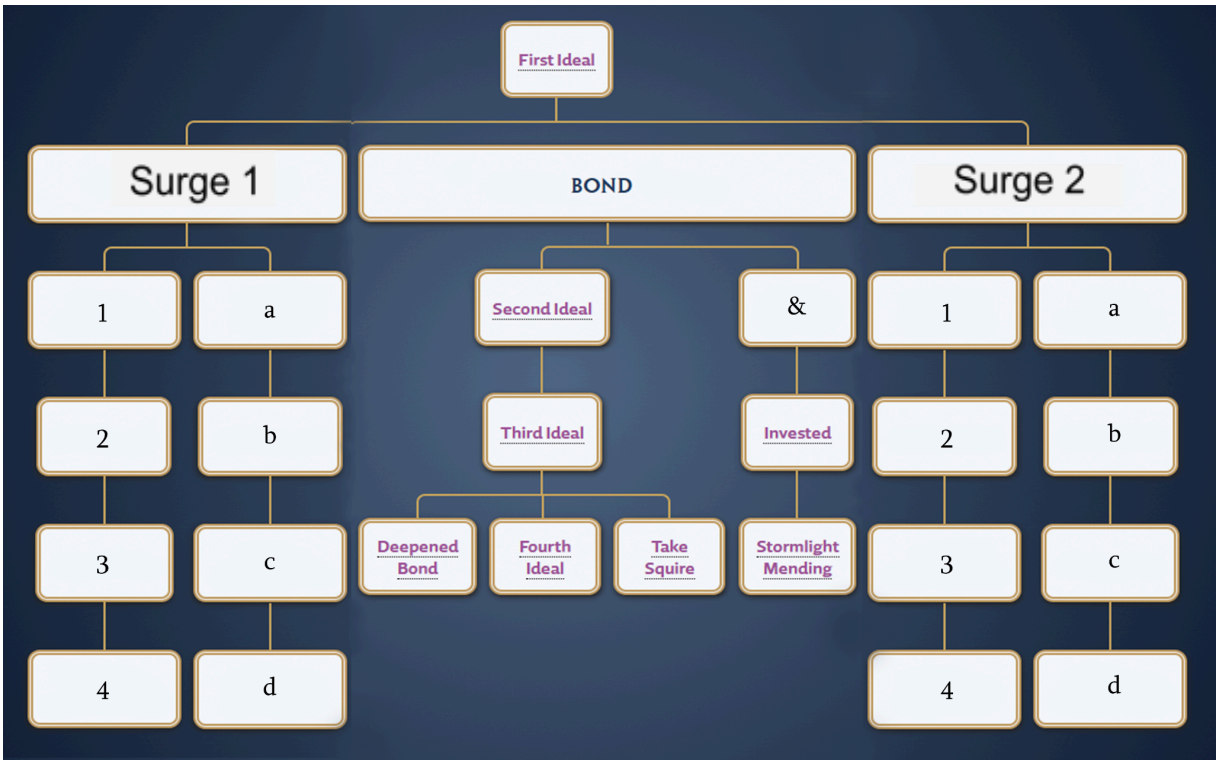

First Ideal (key talent): You gain access to Investiture. You begin with a total Investiture of your Wisdom modifier + your Proficiency Bonus. You can use the Breath Stormlight, Enhance, and Regenerate actions. Additionally, you gain the goal “Speak the First Ideal.” After you complete this goal, you become Empowered.

Breath Stormlight: Action. You can absorb Investiture from Stormlight that is 5 ft of you. (1 chip = 1 Investiture, 1 mark = 5 Investiture, 1 broam = 10 Investiture)

Enhance: Bonus action. Concentration. You spend 1 Investiture point to add +2 to your Str, Dex and Con modifiers for 1 turn. At the beginning of your next turn, you can use Enhance as a Free action.

Regenerate: Bonus action. Concentration. You spend 1 Investiture point to heal 1d4 for 1 turn. At the beginning of your next turn, you can use Regenerate as a Free action.

Empowered: You have Advantage on all checks and you regain all of your Investiture points each round for 10 rounds. Also, you will now be a member of one of the ten Knights Radiant Order and you will gain access to its two Surges.

Windrunners are the scouts and special forces of the Knights Radiant. They wield the surges of Adhesion and Gravitation.

SKYBREAKER

Skybreakers are justice incarnate, ensuring that power is never abused and that order never devolves into chaos. They wield the surges of Gravitation and Division.

DUSTBRINGER

Dustbringers enjoy engineering and taking things apart to learn how they work. They wield the surges of Division and Abrasion.

EDGEDANCER

An Edgedancer's core duty is to provide service and assistance to the common people. They wield the surges of Abrasion and Progression.

TRUTHWATCHER

The cosmere contains countless secrets and mysteries. Truthwatchers live to uncover and solve as many as possible, acting as the researchers and investigative reporters of the Knights Radiant. They wield the surges of Progression and Illumination.

LIGHTWEAVER

The Order of Lightweavers includes many painters, musicians, sculptors, thespians, and practitioners of similar arts. They wield the surges of Illumination and Transformation.

ELSECALLER

Elsecallers have the strongest connection to the Cognitive Realm of all the Radiant Orders. They wield the surges of Transformation and Transportation.

WILLSHAPER

Willshapers embody freedom. This can be the freedom of liberating the captive, but also the freedom of choice and self-expression. They wield the surges of Transportation and Cohesion.

STONEWARD

The Order of Stonewards are the heavy infantry of the Knights Radiant, standing side by side with their allies as an unflinching vanguard. They wield the surges of Cohesion and Tension.

BONDSMITH

Bondsmiths are generally the heart and soul of the Radiants. They tend to attract the peacemakers of the world, those who want to bring people together rather than divide them. They wield the surges of Tension and Adhesion.

SURGES

ADHESION

Adhesion (free talent): Action. Touch. 1 Investiture per round. On a successful DC 10 Insight check, you touch and infuse two non-living objects within 5 ft of each other and they become stuck together. A creature can make an Athletics check of DC (10 + your Proficiency Bonus) to unstick the objects. You can unstick any infused object as a Free action. For each rank you put in Adhesion, you can infuse larger objects. Rank 1 Small(2.5 ft), rank 2 Medium(5 ft), rank 3 Large(10 ft), rank 4 Huge(15 ft), rank 5 Gargantuan(20 ft).

1 Stormlight Reclamation: Free action. You can end any number of Adhesion infusions to regain 1 Investiture for each.

2 Distant Adhesion: The Adhesion action has a range of 20 ft but the objects infused must be within 5 ft of each other.

3 Extended Adhesion: The Adhesion action consumes only 1 Investiture per number of rounds equal to your Proficiency Bonus.

4 Living Adhesion: You can use the Adhesion action on living creatures. If the creature is smaller than the object that it is attached to, it becomes Restrained.

a Binding Strike: After you hit with a melee attack you can use the Adhesion action as a Bonus action.

b Binding Shot: The objects you try to stick can be 20 ft apart. Colliding with objects deal 1d6 bludgeon damage.

c Adhesive Trap: You can use the Adhesion action to infuse a portion of a surface. When an object comes into contact with that surface it becomes stuck and must succeed an Athletics check of DC (10 + Proficiency Bonus).

d Superior Bond: When a creature tries to unstick an object, if its Strength modifier is equal or lower than your Proficiency Bonus it automatically fails.

GRAVITATION

Gravitation (free talent): Action. Touch. Concentration. 1 Investiture per round. On a successful DC 10 Perception check, you change an object's gravitation. That object can move up to 20 ft in the direction you choose. A creature can make an Acrobatics of DC (10 + your Proficiency Bonus) check to stop moving. For each rank you put in Gravitation, you can infuse larger objects. Rank 1 Small(2.5ft), rank 2 Medium(5 ft), rank 3 Large(10 ft), rank 4 Huge(15 ft), rank 5 Gargantuan(20 ft).

1 Flying Ace: Your flying speed increases 10 ft. You can make Opportunity attacks while flying.

3 Multiple Lashings: You can spend 1 extra point of Investiture when using the Gravitation action on an object to increase its speed by 20 ft.

4 Master of the Skies: While having at least 1 point of Investiture, you can fly without spending Investiture.

a Gravitational Slam: If an object under your control through gravitation strikes a solid surface, you can add 1d4 of bludgeon damage for every 10 feet the creature has fallen.

b Lashing Shot: Action. Ranged attack 30 ft. 1 Investiture. On a successful DC 10 Perception check, you infuse an object that deals 2d4 when thrown. For each extra point of Investiture you add, the range increases 20 ft.

c Group Flight: Outside of combat, when you use the Gravitation action on yourself, you can also infuse a number of additional willing creatures up to your Proficiency Bonus. Those creatures don't benefit from your talents.

d Aerial Squadron: You can use Group Flight in combat.

DIVISION

Division (free talent): Action. Touch. 1 Investiture. On a successful DC 10 Intimidation check, you can burn, turn to dust or decay an object. It deals 1d6 fire, necrotic or poison damage. For each rank you put in Division, you can decay larger objects and increase the damage die. Rank 1 Small(2.5 ft) / 1d6, rank 2 Medium(5 ft) / 2d6, rank 3 Large(10 ft) / 3d6, rank 4 Huge(15 ft) / 4d6, rank 5 Gargantuan(20 ft) / 5d6.

1 Bodily Decay: When you use the Division action to damage a creature, that creature suffers 1d4 damage on its next number of turns equal to your Proficiency Bonus.

2 Bombarding Division: When using the Division action, you can spend extra Investiture to affect other targets that are 5ft or less from the first object. It costs 2 extra Investiture per target.

3 Incendiary Blast: Action. 5 Investiture. Range 30 ft. On a successful DC 10 Intimidation check, you create a 10 ft area that deals 4d6 fire, necrotic or poison damage. Creatures in the area must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a success, the creature takes half the damage.

4 Devastating Division: You can roll an additional 1d6 when using any Division action.

a Eroding Escape: Reaction. 1 Investiture. When Grappled or Restrained, you can break free on a successful DC 10 Intimidation check and deal 1d6 fire, necrotic or poison damage in a 10 ft area.

b Distant Division: The Division action range expands +20 ft.

c Igniting Division: Action. Self. Concentration. 1 Investiture per round. On a successful DC 10 Intimidation check, you create a 5 ft area around you that deals 1d4 fire, necrotic or poison damage to anything inside.

d Unleashed Entropy: You have Advantage using any Division action. (In Incendiary Blast, creatures have Disadvantage on the Dexterity saving throw).

ABRASION

Abrasion: Action. Touch. 1 Investiture per round. On a successful DC 10 Performance check, you can reduce an object's friction and make it slippery. Being Slippery gives you +10 ft Speed and enemies have Disadvantage on Grappling and Opportunity attacks against you. For each rank you put in Abrasion, you can change the friction of larger objects. Rank 1 Small(2.5 ft), rank 2 Medium(5 ft), rank 3 Large(10 ft), rank 4 Huge(15 ft), rank 5 Gargantuan(20 ft).

1 Frictionless Motion: While being Slippery, you gain +10 ft speed and +20 ft jump.

2 Stormlight Reclamation: Free action. You can end any number of Abrasion infusions to regain 1 Investiture for each.

3 Graceful Skating: For each 10 ft you move on your turn, you gain +1 to hit.

4 Smooth Operator: While having at least 1 point of Investiture, you have +20 ft speed without spending Investiture.

a Reverse Abrasion: You can use the Abrasion action to increase yourself or an object friction turning it sticky. Being Sticky gives you -10ft Speed, +10ft Climb Speed and Advantage on Grappling.

b Distant Abrasion: The Abrasion action range expands +20 ft.

c Slippery Target: While being Slippery, attacks against you have Disadvantage.

d Slick Combatant: Reaction. 1 Investiture. On a successful DC 10 Performance check, you can use the Abrasion action to stop a creature from moving. On a failed Athletics check, the creature's movement is reduced to 0 or half if it succeeds.

PROGRESSION

Progression: Action. Touch. 1 Investiture. On a successful DC 10 Medicine check, you can heal a creature for 1d6 hp. For each rank you put in Progression, you can increase the heal. Rank 1 1d6, rank 2 2d6, rank 3 3d6, rank 4 4d6, rank 5 5d6.

1 Verdant Touch: You can add your Wisdom modifier to the Progression action.

2 Bloom of Renewal: When you cast the Progression action, you can choose to cure from being Blinded, Deafened or Poisoned instead of healing.

8 Command Breaking: Action. 8 Investiture. Range 30 ft. Once per short rest. You can target a creature or object that is Awakened. On a failed DC (10 + your proficiency bonus) Wisdom saving throw, you can override its command.You gain +2 Investiture.

9 Greater Awakening: Your Awake action now has a range of 30 ft. You can also Awaken non-organic objects. You gain +2 Investiture.

10 Perfect Invocation: You can Awake without requiring V and M components. Also, once per long rest, as an Action, you can emanate a 10ft aura of heightened color and vitality. While you have this aura activated you gain Truesight, all illusions inside the aura disappear and all creatures inside the aura must succeed in a DC (10 + your Cha mod) or be charmed. You gain +2 Investiture.

BREATH COMMANDER

1 Efficient Awakening: Your Awakened objects lasts 10 minutes instead of 1 when you are not in combat.

2 Combat Awakening: Bonus Action. Touch. You can give a new command to one of your awakened objects.

3 Multi-Thread Command: You can Awake more objects at the same time up to a number equal to your charisma modifier.

4 Ichor Infusion: Action. Once per long rest. 10 Investiture. Requires attunement. You can permanently awake an object.

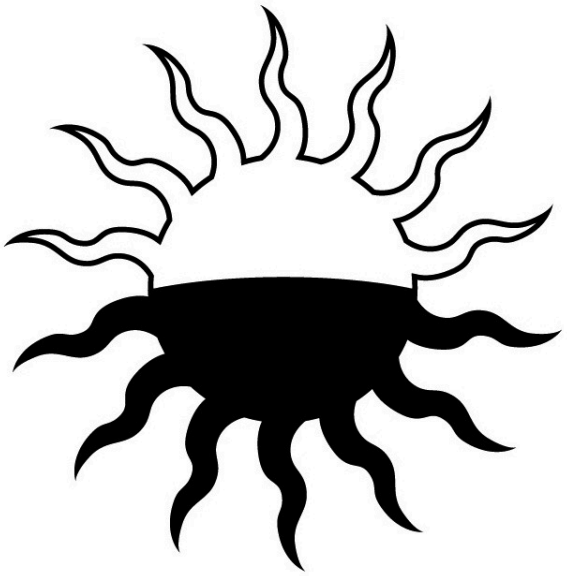

a Lifeless Awakening: You can Awake dead bodies. They cost an extra 5 Investiture to Awake.

b Breath Storage: Action. Touch. 1 Investiture. You can store one of your memories in an object that becomes awakened. That memory is erased from your mind until you reclaim it.

c Breath Adaptation: You can use the Reclaim Breath Action in objects that have another form of Investiture than Breaths.

d Returned: If you die, you come back to life with all your hit points but without any memory of your past self. Additionally, now you have to consume 1 Investiture each day or you will automatically die.

SAND MASTERY PATH

Once you have chosen at least one talent from a Heroic Path, for your next level up you can choose a talent from the Sand Mastery Path instead.

SANDMASTER

“Control sand to fight, defend, and move.”

White Sand Initiation (key talent): You gain access to Investiture. You begin with a total Investiture of your Constitution modifier + your Proficiency Bonus. You gain the Create White Sand and Create Ribbon actions.

Create White Sand: Action. Touch. 2 Investiture. 1 hour. You can infuse a 5ft area of regular sand to create white sand. If the white sand comes into contact with another source of Investiture, or when the duration ends, it immediately loses all magical properties and turns black, becoming inert. You regain all expended Investiture points at dawn.

Create Ribbon: Action. S, M (white sand). Touch. Concentration. 30 ft. You touch a 5-foot area of white sand and shape it into a flexible ribbon of animated sand up to 10 feet long. You can create up to a maximum number of ribbons equal to your proficiency bonus + your number of Sand Mastery talents. The ribbon has 1 hit point, occupies its own space, and is not a creature. While the ribbon persists, you can command it as a bonus action on each of your turns. When commanded, the ribbon can attempt to pull or shove a creature or make a melee spell attack using your spellcasting ability modifier; on a hit, the attack deals 1d6 bludgeoning damage. The ribbon has a speed of 20ft and an AC of 8 + your number of Sand Mastery talents. If the ribbon is reduced to 0 hit points or is 120ft away from you, the effect ends and the sand becomes inert. While you maintain concentration on this effect, you must drink water as a Bonus Action at least once every 6 rounds (-1 round per each new ribbon). If you fail to do so, you can destroy all your ribbons or gain 1 level of exhaustion on a failed DC Constitution saving throw. Concentrating in this spell two or more times doesn’t end the concentration in controlling previous ribbons but when the concentration is lost, all the ribbons disappear.

DIEM’S HAND

1 Ribbon Technique: You can command your ribbons to grapple, interact with objects, lift them or create half covers as a bonus action and create an opportunity attack as a reaction.

2 Sand Shield: Reaction. 1 Investiture. You can command a ribbon that is at 10ft from your target to block any incoming attack. The target creature gains +2AC and if the attack continues to hit, the ribbon absorbs 1d8 + Wisdom modifier + Proficiency bonus. The ribbon is always destroyed after the attack.

3 Master of Ribbons: When using the Create Ribbon action, you can now create up to 3 ribbons instead of one as long as you have enough white sand to do it. Additionally, your ribbons now deal 1d8 bludgeoning damage instead of 1d6.

4 Mastrell’s Control: You gain Advantage on Constitution saving throws against losing concentration on Sand Mastery. When you lose concentration on your ribbons you can choose to destroy one ribbon instead of all of them.

a Sandcraft: When using the Create Ribbon action, instead of creating a ribbon you can create an Artisan tool, a 10ft pole, a 10ft bridge or a 5ft square platform.

b Solar Charge: Action. Once per long rest. You regain all expended Investiture points if you are in direct contact with the sun.

c Many Hands: When you command your ribbon with a bonus action, you may command up to three.

d Sand Flight: Bonus Action. While having at least 3 ribbons at 10ft of you, you gain a flying speed equal to your walking speed and do not provoke opportunity attacks for the duration of your turn.

DUNE ASCETIC

1 Ribbon Lance: Action. 2 Investiture. Range 60ft. You command one active ribbon to shoot a stream of sand that deals 3d8 bludgeoning damage and can push a creature Large or smaller 10ft on a failed Dexterity save.

2 Sand Shackles: Action. 2 Investiture. Range 30ft. You command one active ribbon to wrap around a creature at 5ft of it. On a failed DC (10 + your spellcasting modifier) Strength save, the creature is Restrained and suffers 1d6 piercing damage every turn that continues to be restrained. You can command that ribbon to move up to 10ft as a Bonus Action carrying with it the trapped creature.

3 Sand Wave: Action. 4 Investiture. Range 60ft. You create a 20ft wide wave of white sand that travels from you to up to 60ft in any direction you choose in a straight line. Creatures of your choice within the area must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failure, a creature takes 3d8 bludgeoning damage and is knocked prone. On a success, it takes half as much damage and isn't knocked prone.

4 Avatar of the Sand Lord: Action. 7 Investiture. Once per long rest. 1 minute. Concentration. You don’t need to drink water for the duration of the spell. You create a 10ft square cloud of sand around you that Blinds and pushes away creatures 5ft on failed Dexterity saving throw. Also You gain 1 + your Wisdom modifier + Proficiency Bonus new ribbons in a 20ft radius from you, your ribbons now deal an extra 1d8 bludgeoning damage. In next turns, as an action, you can command all your ribbons at the same time.

a Sand Sense: You can use the Create White Sand action at a range of 10ft. Additionally, while touching white sand you can detect any source of Investiture in a 60ft radius.

b Water Discipline: You gain +2 Investiture. Creating White Sand only costs 1 Investiture. You can drink water as a free action.

c Moisture Siphon: Action. 2 Investiture. Touch from you or one of your ribbons. On a hit, you deal 2d8 fire damage to a target and, on a failed Constitution saving throw, gain 1 point of Exhaustion. If it’s you that touches the target creature, you heal 1d8 hp.

d Overmastery: Action. Once per short rest. All your Investiture. For each Investiture point spent, you can summon 1 projectile from any ribbon you control. The projectile has a range of 60ft, deals 2d10 bludgeoning damage and the target can be knocked prone on a failed Constitution saving throw. When Overmastery ends you gain 1 level of Exhaustion.

THE DOR PATHS

Once you have chosen at least one talent from a Heroic Path, for your next level up you can choose a talent from a Dor Path instead.

Selish Connection (key talent): You gain access to Investiture. You begin with a total Investiture of your Intelligence modifier + your Proficiency Bonus. You gain the Draw the Dor and Selish Resonance. You obtain 1 free Dor Path talent without spending any point.

Draw the Dor: Action. Self. Once per short rest. On a successful DC 20 Intelligence saving throw, you regain 1d8 Investiture. On a fail, you regain half as much and receive 1d8 psychic damage. On a 1 you activate a random wild magic spell.

Dor Resonance: For every point in The Dor Paths, the DC for using the Draw the Dor action is reduced by 1. Additionally, for every 3 points, you regain 1d8 extra Investiture when successfully using the Draw the Dor action.

AonDor

“Draw magical symbols to create powerful effects and manipulate the world around you.”

1 Aon Initiate: You learn two Cantrips, two 1st-level Spells or one of both from any class's spell list. Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for these spells and you can cast these spells by spending Investiture equal to 1 + the spell's level.

2 Aon Adept: You learn two Spells from up to 3rd level from any class's spell list. Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for these spells and you can cast these spells by spending Investiture equal to 1 + the spell's level.

3 Aon Master: You learn two Spells from up to 5ft level from any class's spell list. Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for these spells and you can cast these spells by spending Investiture equal to 1 + the spell's level.

a Aon Modification: When you cast a Spell, you can spend 1 additional Investiture to modify one of its properties. Choose one:

- Double its range.
- Double its duration.
- Increase its area of effect by 5 feet.
- Exclude any number of creatures from its area.
- Change its damage type to Force.

You can use this ability only once per casting.

b Aon Linking: When using your Action to cast a Spell, you can cast another Spell by spending Investiture equal to 2 + the spell’s level.

c Taken by the Shaod: You transform into a full Elantrian with white hair and metallic skin that sheds bright light in a 10 ft radius. You no longer need to eat, drink, breathe, or sleep, and you are immune to disease, poison, and nonmagical aging. Additionally, You can cast Draw the Dor twice per short rest.

Dakhor

“Transform your body to gain unnatural strength, speed, and durability.”

1 Twisted Form: Action. 5 Investiture. Concentration. Up to 1 minute. You awaken the twisted patterns within your skeleton. While concentrating, you gain +2 AC, +10 ft and your melee weapon attacks and unarmed strikes deal additional force damage equal to your Intelligence modifier.

2 Unbreakable Bones: While Concentrating on Twisted Form, you gain resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage, and you have Advantage on saving throws against being knocked Prone or forcibly moved.

3 Master of the Dakhor: While Concentrating on Twisted Form, its effects apply twice. Additionally, you gain Advantage on Strength, Dexterity and Constitution checks and saving throws and you cannot be Stunned or Paralyzed by nonmagical effects.

a Bone Shifter: Action. 2 Investiture. Up to 8 hours. You can completely change your appearance and creatures have Disadvantage on Wisdom (Insight) checks made to discern your true identity. Additionally, you can also grow claws to add +1d6 slashing damage to your unarmed attacks and gain 20 ft of climbing speed.

b Devourer of Investiture: Reaction. 2 Investiture. When you take damage from a magical effect, you can absorb part of the Dor flowing through the attack. Reduce the damage by 2d10 + your Intelligence modifier and regain Investiture equal to half the damage prevented, rounded down.

c Dakhor Teleportation: Once per long rest. Action. 5 Investiture. Self. V, S, M (living creature to sacrifice). You teleport yourself and up to five willing creatures within 10 feet of you to a location you know within 60 ft. For each sacrificed creature, you can add 60 ft to the distance. If the sacrificed creature had access to Investiture, you add 120 ft instead of 60 ft.

ChayShan

“Use martial movements to enhance your body and perform supernatural feats.”

1 ChayShan Dance: Bonus Action. 1 Investiture per round. Concentration. Up to 1 minute. You enter the fluid, circular motions of the ChayShan dance. While concentrating on this posture, your walking speed increases by 5 ft and your melee weapon attacks and unarmed strikes deal additional damage equal to your Intelligence modifier. To keep Concentrating on ChayShan Dance you must spend a Bonus Action each turn.

2 Empowering Momentum: For each consecutive turn you maintain concentration on ChayShan Dance, you gain +5 ft. of walking speed and the additional damage granted by ChayShan Dance increases by an amount equal to your Intelligence modifier. This bonus stacks each turn, up to a maximum of 10 stacks.

3 Breaking Blow: Action. 1 Investiture. You end your ChayShan Dance with an unarmed attack that deals an additional 3d10 bludgeoning damage and on a failed Strength saving throw against your spell save DC, your target is knocked Prone and pushed 10 feet away from you in a straight line.

a Focused Motion: While Concentrating on ChayShan Dance, you gain Advantage on Dexterity saving throws and creatures have Disadvantage against attacking you.

b Resonant Form: While Concentrating on ChayShan Dance, you gain Blindsight 15ft, you have Advantage on Constitution and Wisdom saving throws, and your unarmed attacks deal magical damage.

c Master of the Dance: While Concentrating on ChayShan Dance, you gain resistance to all damage except psychic, you can use your Intelligence modifier instead of Strength or Dexterity for your melee attack and damage rolls, taking damage does not trigger Concentration checks to maintain ChayShan Dance and you gain 1 Investiture for every successful hit against a creature.

Forgery

“Rewrite the history of people and objects with stamps to temporarily change their abilities, appearance, or memories.”

1 Remembering: Action. 2 Investiture. S,M (carved soulstamp, ink). Touch. 1 Hour. You apply a Soulstamp to a nonmagical object, rewriting a part of its history. Choose one of the following effects:

- Masterwork: The object becomes an expertly crafted version of itself, granting your proficiency bonus on checks made using it.

- Reconstruction: Repair a damaged or broken object, provided all of its major pieces are present.

- Altered Purpose: The object gains a plausible function it could reasonably have possessed.

2 Resealing: Action. 3 Investiture. S,M (carved soulstamp, ink). Touch. The target regains 3d8 + your Proficiency Bonus hit points and you can end one of the following conditions affecting it: Blinded, Deafened, Poisoned, or Prone. A creature can only benefit from Resealing once per Short Rest.

3 Soulforging: Action. 4 Investiture. S,M (carved soulstamp, ink). Touch. 1 Minute. On a successful Wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC, you apply a Soulstamp and rewrite part of the Spiritual history of a creature. Choose one of the following:

- Forged Mind: Gain or lose proficiency in one skill, tool, weapon, armor or saving throw.

- Forged Body: Gain or lose one trait like darkvision, types of speed or resistances

- Forged Appearance: Completely alter your appearance, voice, scent and other physical characteristics.

- Forged Memory: Gain or lose a specific memory appropriate to your forged history.

a Invested Ink: Remembering lasts 8 hours instead of 1, Soulforging lasts 1 Hour instead of 1 Minute and Resealing heals an additional 1d8.

b Soulstone Stamps: Forgery spells costs 1 less Investiture. Additionally, when your Soulstamp ends, you can spend 2 Investiture as a reaction to extend it 8 hours for Remembering, 1 hour for Soulforging or an additional 1d8 for the Resealing heal.

c Master Forger: Remembering works on magical objects, Resealing can heal long lost missing body parts and Soulforging can change stats, spells and class. Additionally, you can spend 4 Investiture to make a Soulstamp permanent and doesn’t expire unless it breaks on a successful Wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC.

Bloodsealing

“Use blood-based seals to bind creatures, protect areas, and create skeletal servants.”

1 Bloodseal Ward: Action. 2 Investiture. S,M (blood of the target). Touch. 1 Hour. You inscribe a Bloodseal ward upon a door, gate, or other solid surface, using the blood of a specific creature. The creature whose blood was used becomes bound to the ward. While the ward persists, you know if the bound creature: leaves the room or enclosed area protected by the ward, attempts to alter, destroy, or remove the Bloodseal or willingly allows another creature to alter or remove the Bloodseal. You can have only one active Bloodseal Ward at a time. The ward's magical glow gradually fades as its duration approaches its end. The Bloodseal disappears when your concentration ends.

2 Reinforced Ward: Reaction. 1 Investiture. When the creature bound to your ward attempts to leave the protected area, interfere with the Bloodseal or willingly allows another creature to alter it, the creature must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC or be Paralyzed for 1d6 turns and take 3d10 psychic damage. It takes half as much damage and is not Paralyzed on a successful saving throw. Additionally, objects protected by your Bloodseal Ward cannot be altered by any magic means while the ward remains active.

3 Master Bloodsealer: Your Bloodseal Ward lasts for 24 hours and you receive visual information mentally from the seal, which has normal vision and darkvision out to 30ft and blindsight out to 10ft. Additionally, you can maintain a number of Bloodseal Wards equal to proficiency bonus + your levels on Bloodsealing.

a Animate Skeletal: Action. 4 Investiture. V,S,M (bones). Range 10 ft. 1 Hour. Concentration. You create a Skeletal from a collection of bones and give it one simple command.The Skeletal uses the following statistics:

Skeletal
Medium undead construct AC: 13
HP: 10 + your Proficiency Bonus × 2
Speed: 30 ft.
STR: 12 (+1)
DEX: 14 (+2)
CON: 10 (+0)
INT: 3 (-4)
WIS: 8 (-1)
CHA: 5 (-3)

Blood Tracker: If you give the Skeletal a blood sample taken from a creature within the last 24 hours, you can command it to track that creature. The Skeletal has Advantage on Wisdom (Survival) checks made to track the creature.

Bone Claw: Action. Melee Weapon Attack: your spell attack modifier to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 1d6 + 2 slashing damage.

b Sharp Bones: When you create a Skeletal, choose two modification:

- Sharpened Bones: Its Bone Claw deals 1d8 slashing damage instead of 1d6.

- Spiked Frame: A creature that hits the Skeletal with a melee attack while within 5 feet of it takes 1d4 piercing damage.

- Reinforced Frame: The Skeletal gains +2 AC and its hit points increase by an amount equal to your Proficiency Bonus.

- Precise Commands: The Skeletal can understand more complex instructions. You can command it to perform sequences of actions, guard specific locations, follow creatures, retrieve objects, or perform other tasks without needing to issue a new command every turn.

c Army of the dead: You can now animate up to 3 skeletals at the same time using the Animate Skeletal Action and you can control up to your proficiency bonus + your levels on Bloodsealing. Animate Skeletals no longer requires Concentration.
